Complaints and Appeals

At EdTec we want to ensure that our students have an enjoyable and valuable learning experience. While doing so sometimes problems are likely to arise. A student may submit a complaint against any area that they are not happy with. On hearing the complaint, if students are not happy with the decision, they can appeal for review. Once the complaint is filed, it is handled fairly and will dealt in a way that it does not cause any future complications.

Education and Training

Education and Training has brought significance change in the lives of countless people globally by giving the confidence and the vocational skills to utilize their capabilities and talents. All people needs to be fuelled for better progression in the future and only good education and training can bring the progression in them.
